DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-3, drawn to a skin treatment composition comprising an extract of Mahonia aquifolium in liposome delivery system, classified in class 424, subclass 1.21 or class 424, subclass 78.03
- II. Claims 4-9, drawn to a method of making an extract of Mahonia aquifolium and a product thereof, classified in class 424, subclass 725.
- III. Claim 10, drawn to a method of treating psoriasis, eczema and other dry skin conditions by applying the skin treatment composition of claim 1, classified in class 514, subclass 863.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case, the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product. For example, in U.S. Patent 6,069,169, Ptchelintsev et al. teaches a topical composition for treating psoriasis and eczema, which comprises oxa-acid compounds.

Art Unit: 1654

Inventions II and III are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the two different groups are directed to two different inventions. For instance, the invention of Group II is directed to a method of making an extract of Mahonia aquifolium, whereas the invention of Group III is directed to a method of treating psoriasis, eczema and other dry skin conditions by applying the skin treatment composition of claim 1.

The two are independent and distinct, each from the other. They have acquired a separate status in the art as a separate subject for inventive effect and require independent searches (as indicated by the different classification). The search for each of the above inventions is not co-extensive particularly with regard to the literature search. Further a reference which would anticipate the invention of one group would not necessarily anticipate or even make obvious another group. Finally, the consideration for patentability is different in each case. Thus, it would be an undue burden to examine all of the above inventions in one application.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for one Group is not required for another Group, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Art Unit: 1654

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
